Description

We are currently seeking highly skilled and motivated individuals to join our dynamic team as Project Engineers. As a Project Engineer at the Department of Petroleum Resources (DPR), you will play a key role in the planning, execution, and successful completion of various projects within the oil and gas sector. This is an exciting opportunity for individuals who are passionate about contributing to the growth and development of the energy industry.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to develop project plans, timelines, and budgets.
- Oversee the implementation of engineering projects, ensuring adherence to industry standards and regulations.
- Conduct feasibility studies and risk assessments to identify potential challenges and propose effective solutions.
- Monitor project progress, report on key performance indicators, and address issues to ensure timely delivery.
- Manage project resources, including personnel, equipment, and materials, to optimize efficiency.
- Liaise with contractors, suppliers, and stakeholders to foster positive working relationships and resolve issues.
- Provide technical expertise and guidance to team members throughout the project lifecycle.
- Ensure compliance with health, safety, and environmental standards in all project activities.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Engineering (Mechanical, Civil, Electrical, or related field).
- Professional certification in Project Management or Engineering is a plus.
- Proven experience in project management within the oil and gas industry.
- Strong knowledge of industry regulations, standards, and best practices.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Analytical mindset with problem-solving abilities.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced and dynamic environment.
- Proficient in project management tools and software.

Job Benefits

- Competitive salary and benefits package.
- Opportunities for professional development and career advancement.
- Health insurance coverage.
- Retirement benefits.
- Supportive work environment that values diversity and inclusion.
